

How Orthodontic Benefits Are Paid

The standard CareFirst orthodontia benefit covers braces, clear aligners,* a retainer, headgear and more. Not all dental plans cover orthodontia, however, so you will need to check your benefits booklet to see if you and your dependents are covered.

CareFirst pays the benefit for orthodontic treatment quarterly. The amount is based on estimated length of treatment. The dentist or orthodontist will provide CareFirst with this information. Dentists and orthodontists will submit one claim for the entire course of orthodontic treatment.

The following pages have a few examples of how orthodontic benefits are paid. These scenarios assume a dental plan with a lifetime maximum benefit of $1,500. A lifetime maximum benefit is the amount CareFirst will pay in a member's lifetime with CareFirst insurance.

The scenarios also assume a $3,500 allowed benefit for orthodontic treatment. An allowed benefit is the fee that providers in our network have agreed to accept for service. They may not charge more than the allowed benefit amount.

* Clear aligner therapy (such as Invisalign®) provided at the dental office by your orthodontist or dentist is a covered service. Direct-to-consumer or virtual-only orthodontic treatment with clear aligners is NOT covered.

Scenario 1—New orthodontia treatment

CareFirst will determine the allowed benefit when the appliance (e.g., braces, clear aligner, retainer, headgear, etc.) is placed. Any increase in allowed benefits during treatment won't apply to treatment in progress.

CareFirst will pay 25% of the lifetime maximum for orthodontic services when the appliance is placed. The remaining cost will be split into equal monthly amounts. CareFirst will pay those amounts quarterly.

A participating dentist or orthodontist is in the plan network. If you get treatment from a participating dentist or orthodontist, you'll pay 50% of the allowed benefit. CareFirst will pay the other 50%. CareFirst will pay (up to) the orthodontic lifetime maximum benefit amount. You will pay the difference between the allowed and lifetime maximum amounts. See Example #1:

Non participating dentist may not submit claims to Carefirst and may ask for payment up front. In this example the Member visited a non-participating dentist for orthodontic treatment and paid the total charge to the provider and is seeking reimbursement for treatment (up to $1500). The quarterly reimbursement would be paid to the member instead of the provider. Below is a breakdown of the reimbursement:

Scenario 2—CareFirst coverage effective after the start of an ongoing orthodontic treatment plan

You're still eligible for benefits if you enroll when a treatment is in progress. Dentists or orthodontists will submit relevant charges, banding date and length of treatment. CareFirst will review the remaining costs for treatment. CareFirst will prorate an orthodontic claim if the banding date is before the benefit effective date. Prorated payments vary depending on length of treatment.

Note: The lifetime maximum ($1,500) does not change due to payments for treatment with a previous provider.

Example — 36 month treatment plan, participating orthodontist

The orthodontic treatment plan costs $5,000 for 36 months and the member had 20 months in treatment prior to CareFirst coverage effective date.

Monthly treatment plan cost	$138.89	$$5,000 \div 36 \text{ months} = $138.89$
Total amount CareFirst will not cover for benefit	$2,777.80	$$138.89 \times 20 \text{ months} = $2,777.80$
New total charge for benefit and what CareFirst and the member will pay over the next 16 months	$2,222.20	$$5,000 - 2,777.80 = $2,222.20$ $2,222.20 is less than the allowed benefit of $3,500; therefore, CareFirst and the member share the total cost over the remaining 16 months of covered treatment.
Total member is responsible for	$1,111.10	Member is responsible for 50 percent coinsurance ( $$2,222.20 \times 50\% = $1,111.10$ )
Total amount CareFirst is responsible for	$1,111.10	Since the coinsurance is lower than the orthodontic lifetime maximum of $1,500, CareFirst will pay the remaining balance  CareFirst will make an initial payment of $69.44 ( $$1,111.10 \div 16 \text{ months} = $69.44$ ) and then 4 quarterly payments of $208.32, plus a final payment of $208.38.
